THE NATIONAL INFANTRY MUSEUM

The National Infantry Museum emphasizes the values that define the Infantryman, as well as the nation he protects: Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity, and Personal Courage. The museum preserves and displays one of the greatest collections of military artifacts in the world, but it is a museum of people, not things. We will meet the Infantryman face to face and join him on his journey. We will come to understand why an Infantryman does what he does, why he puts himself in harm's way in defense of an idea, and you will leave transformed, just as the Infantry transforms the man into the soldier.
